Notes for Rosa Talerico:

Rose Talerico, a story handed down from Rose's Mother, Antoinetta Arcuri Talerico to Sandra Falbo-Nucci.:

When Rose Talerico was 15 years old, someone wanted to kidnap her (most likely for marriage reasons). Her mother Antoinetta outwitted them by telling them, "Why should we do things this way when they could be done properly in a better way?". The would-be kidnapers believed her and they left. Rose was already interested in Frank DeFazio who was a friend of the family. So, Rose and Frank eloped and went to California, where his family lived. When the would-be kidnapers returned, Antoinetta told them her daughter and friend Frank DeFazio had eloped.

Louis DeFazio was Frank DeFazio's brother. Louis married Rose's sister Christina Talerico. Two brothers married two sisters. Both DeFazio couples raised their families in California.

- 13 vii. Christina Talerico, born September 15, 1901 in Castagna, Catanzaro, Italy; died June 25, 1982 in Sacramento Calif.. She married Louis DeFazio February 24, 1924.

Eugene Fiorentino, Jr. of New Hartford

Mr. Eugene Fiorentino, Jr., age 42, of New Hartford, passed away on Monday, May 19, 2003, in the comfort of his home, with his family by his side. Born in New Hartford on April 21, 1961, he was the first son of Nicoletta (Angrisano) Fiorentino and the late Eugene Fiorentino, Sr. Raised and educated in New Hartford, he graduated from New Hartford High School as a member of the Class of 1979. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in biology from Utica College in 1986. He then continued his studies at the University of Buffalo, earning his Master's degree in natural sciences in 1990. It was in college that Gene met and fell in love with Ellen Richardson. They were married on October 15, 1988, and shared 15 beautiful and happy years of life and immeasurable love for each other. Gene was first employed in a research position with the Center for Advanced Technology at SUNY Buffalo. Since then he has held several administrative offices, initially accepting an appointment to a Technology Transfer position at Mohawk Valley Community College, a career decision that brought him back to the Mohawk Valley. He was most recently employed as Executive Assistant to Michael Schafer, President of MVCC, a position in which he provided dedicated service and knowledgeable expertise until his physical condition prevented him from working any longer and thus brought about his retirement in 1998. Gene was a man of integrity and fortitude. His strength and bravery to live were truly an inspiration for all who ever met or knew him. He was driven and determined to achieve and excel in all aspects of his life, and he accomplished anything he put his mind to. He, as his father, was devoted to the love of family and friends. Gene was an avid fly fisherman, and began tying flies at the age of 13. He spent as much time as he could fishing, hunting, boating, and bow hunting with his brothers, nephews, friends, and his wife, Ellen. He also enjoyed drawing, painting, and listening to jazz. Gene loved to cook and drink espresso. He spent countless hours with Ellen preparing all types of Mediterranean dishes, and was currently developing his own cookbook. Gene also loved a debate or conversation under a shady tree, or on his porch during the rain. A communicant of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Gene was also a member of many organizations, especially ones that provide service to the community or that promote civic causes, including the Utica Chamber of Commerce, the Boy Scouts of America, the Kiwanis Club, the Tonkawah Rod and Gun Club, and the Boards of the American Red Cross and the Resource Center for Independent Living, where he served as a strong advocate for the physically challenged. Mr. Fiorentino is survived by his wife, Ellen; his mother, Nicoletta of New Hartford; three sisters and brothers-in-law, Anne and Dr. Joseph Catania of Cazenovia, Carol and Daniel Dreimiller of New Hartford, and Mary Beth Fiorentino of San Francisco, CA; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Thomas P. and Lori Fiorentino of New Hartford, and Dr. Matthew and Amy Fiorentino of Manlius; and his grandmother, Antoinette Angrisano. His survivors also include his aunts and an uncle; 21 nieces and nephews whom he adored; a number of cousins; his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Gordon and Mary Richardson; and his in-laws, Linda Rice, Dean and Barbara Richardson, and Wayne and Lori Richardson. Also, he leaves his dedicated and compassionate nurse, Donna DeRollo, whom he considered as part of his extended family: her love and devotion were immeasurable. In addition, Gene valued the relationships and companionship he shared with the many wonderful friends who blessed his life. He was predeceased by an uncle, Francis Fiorentino, with whom he shared a close and special relationship. The family extends its sincere thanks to Dr. Charles Eldredge, Dr. William DiFilippo, and Dr. Victor Sacchi, and to the nurses and staff who cared for Gene throughout his illness, especially to the personnel of the Dialysis Unit and the Respiratory Staff, and to Lin Care. Visitation will be held on Wednesday (today) from 4 to 8 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. For those wishing to do so, please consider memorial contributions in Gene's memory to the National Kidney Foundation; envelopes will be available at the funeral home. Mr. Fiorentino's funeral will commence on Thursday afternoon at 12:30 from the funeral home, and at 1:30 at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, where his Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery.
